Foreword - Equestria, what is it?

Equestria, in English “Equestria” is derived from the word “Equestrian” meaning Horseman, however, In our terms, an Equestrian is a resident of Equestria, but what exactly is Equestria?

Equestria is a kingdom in the Acasual on a planet called Equus. But what is Equus and Equestria still besides a kingdom and a planet? Well we know it from a TV show called My Little Pony.

Equestria is a Kingdom of the Ponies led by two Princesses, Princess Celestia, God of the Sun and Princess Luna, God of the Moon, Equestria is a very large kingdom and north of it stands the Crystal Empire, led by Princess Cadence, God of Love, specifically regarding marriage, and her husband Prince Shining Armor, God Love and more precisely healthy relationships.

Finally for princesses we have Princess Twilight Sparkle, God of the Magick of Friendship.

Equestria is the largest of Kingdoms on Equus and is where you will surely end up should you follow the teachings of this book for Princess Celestia speaks through me as she did Lauren Faust when she created the storyboard for G4 and as she did the animators when they perfectly captured the image of Equus with their pens and Pencils. This text is to teach the principles of Equestria and the truth of Celestianism and how it relates to separate occult practices (those I am knowledgeable on)

Later on perhaps in another book I will go into detail about finding your true pony self, your cutie mark and even your pony body and how it will look through astral projection and hypnosis and eventually how to get to Equestria!!!!!!

She watches you always <3

Chapter 1:

“My Little Pony” - Just a TV show?

“I told you that you needed to make some friends, nothing more. I saw the signs of Nightmare Moon's return, and I knew it was you who had the magic inside to defeat her, but you could not unleash it until you let true friendship into your heart."

Is MLP FIM just a TV show? No of course not or else I would not be writing this book or asking this rhetorical question! MLP is more than just a TV show, it is a Window to its Realm. Let me explain it how Princess Celestia explained it to me. "MLP is not just a TV show, it is a true and cosmic reality for an afterlife and a Religion i had sent to humans to follow which only few did and most of those few only followed as a joke. I had created this show from select moments of Twilight Sparkle and her friends' journeys to portray Ms. Faust so that she might be able to create a show using these stories. When it has not worked to show your people that they are, or can be, Ponies, very few have realized this truth, one of our martyrs, Brandon Hole, is well known for his actions, others are unknown for they have done nothing of noteworthy importance.

MLP is special and we've known this since it was released. It always had a spiritual property to it and its world and would resonate with everyone who watched it for a reason for the show itself IS spiritual.

But how do I know its spiritual? Through my journeys of course! Over my time in the occult which I got into at a VERY young age i have learned quite a bit, I have recently gotten very good as Astral Projection and Black Vampirism thanks to the ability to practice it on a large number of people because of the recent death of a popular peer at my school I was given the ability to test my black vampirism, late that night after I was lying in bed entering the astral realm via astral projection in order to better use my astral tendrils but was usurped beyond my intended target in the astral realm, of course this curious and bizarre experience shocked me, and i wondered why on earth it had happened i did not have long to wonder before a booming female voice pierced my train of thought with the answer to my question, "Mystic Physis (my given pony name), I have chosen you for a reason" to which i thought but did not say "who are you" this of was answered with "My Name is Princess Celestia, you know of me already though in the context of what you believe to be simply a cartoon show you enjoy, I shall teach you the truth." to which she proceeded to explain to me more than any human could possibly understand, but of which i shall try my best to convey to you all for it is my duty as an Equestrian to show the world the truth and perhaps allow as many souls i can to choose Celestia as their goddess, and to save them so she may transport them beyond the void to the acasual, to Equestria, permanent afterlife. So as I explained, Equestria itself is a kingdom on the planet Equus, but why is it particularly important? Why choose Equestria over any other afterlife? Great question! Equestria is the happiest of afterlives I or anypony else could possibly imagine, the Abrahamic faiths are lesser faiths that are there to fool the wise, and whilst i have no issue with pagans and Hindus and Buddhists, who on earth would want any of their afterlives, save the Elysian fields and afterlives like it, no these afterlives are not for everypony, they are for most surely but I know many, myself included, who do not wish to go to any of these afterlives, instead we have a separate goal, Equestria, this land is a most beautiful land, it is a utopian version of the life we know, but why would anyone want that? Society is surely the most corrupt and vile institution that has ever been established, it is purely bad, and not the bad that exists so that good can prevail and be appreciated more, it is not a sinister evil either where the evil is acknowledged, no, it is surely the worst form of degeneracy to exist, this evil is not realized as an evil, but is embraced as what is seen as the “norm” for society this true evil is not an evil in the way moralists see evil but is evil in the view of nature herself, when we look at society and we look beyond the inherent sado-masochistic nature of it all, what we reveal is an affront to nature herself, it is the preservation of the weak and more so it is the destruction of the natural order of nature (Physis) in the both Exoteric and Esoteric meaning of the word, society guts all things of its true value in order to have it fit in with their mold of a peaceful, civilized society” which is why evil against our society is an acceptable and even encourageable evil, did not we have Discord protect the ponies of Equestria with his magick? We must fight chaos and evil with what it is at a fundamental level, Anarchy and death. And it is why we must fight for the right to enter Equestria; we must produce value to the world by freeing the innocent and unknowing from a life of abuse and terror. What is not understood to many, the majority of society realistically, is the idea of afterlife and death, many attempt to envision nothingness, to the dismay of their head once they get a headache. Though the true afterlife is not nothingness should you subscribe yourself to something that is. In the case of our beloved Equestria we subscribe ourselves to Princess Celestia and allow ourselves to be embraced by her warmth and love, we must advocate this love and friendship to the mundane people of the world who would wish us harm and death, while that may make many of us closed off we should not use that as an excuse to live against the teachings of the princesses of Equestria, we should embrace love, friendship, kindness and forgiveness for what would this world be with nothing but negativity? It would be nothing! I am most sure that through chaos we as humans (and ponies) surely advance and of course we cannot always be kind, forgiving and so forth for Princess Celestia surely taught us this when she banished her sister, princess luna, to the Moon for 1000 years, or when Luna and Celestia froze Discord into stone, but did Discord not Unfreeze and was taught the value of friendship even as the lord of chaos? Did Nightmare Moon (Luna) not return after those 1000 years and was she not brought back to friendship and love through the efforts of forgiveness and love conducted by the elements of Harmony, Applejack, Rarity, Rainbow Dash, Pinkie Pie, Fluttershy and Princess Twilight Sparkle? While discord lord of chaos's trouble was inevitable, Princess Lunas boiled over rage was preventable, but how? Through friendship! Had princess Celestia noticed that her sister was being ignored and under appreciated, and should she have brought her sister to her rightful place, through understanding and kindness, such trouble would surely have been avoided, and the castle of the sisters would not have been forcefully abandoned due to the wreckage caused in the wake of the battle between the two sisters. And thus I tell you be kind and compassionate to one another and love your enemy for it is surely through friendship that you will awaken all to the truth, though punishment and discipline are both surely necessary for ponies whom go against the wishes of Equestria, we cannot allow us to be overtaken with this poison, it is our duty to root out true forms of vile nature, false kindness is the biggest enemy of Equestria. While Equestria beckons kindness and love, we cannot change the fact that some people do not deserve it, and furthermore that some people should be killed and harmed for this is merely a truthful observation! I can surely make a list of those who have forsaken their love and have declared themselves the enemies of Equestria through their actions and of course i can list those who should be killed not as punishment for wicked ways but as a reward or a form of salvation from this wicked world, such as what Adam Lanza did in order to free the children from a wicked world of abuse. I believe those who wish to follow the teachings of Equestria should inevitably perform something similar to Luc Jouret and Joseph Mambro and the Order of Solar Temple with their mass suicide and execution of traitors, death is the end of the human life, what these deaths do is bring us to our afterlives, in the way Heaven's Gate and Do's away team (a group i greatly admire) did mass suicide as well, they brought themselves above themselves to the acasual, in their case via Flying Saucer!

How a member of EQUESTRIA may appear!!!!!!, just kidding, they'll look like their pony self, of course...

Chapter 2: Celestianism!

"We are gathered here today to once again honor the heroism of these six friends who stood up to the villain Discord and saved Equestria from eternal chaos."

Celestianism, to her we service and in her debt, we do her bidding, to spread love and friendship across the globe! But why and how are we in her debt? I'm glad you asked, but before I must say this "debt" as I call it is not debt in the way we know of something that must be paid back and is enforced as a cage, no, this debt is one we insist she has upon us for her gracious gift of time on earth, humans are often so unenlightened off the top of my head I can name only a few and even less still who got the bigger picture, but we ponies have come as humans to teach friendship and magick, the concept of how we got here was actually shown in the Equestria Girls movie series albeit the designs of the humanized characters are exaggerated but the premises of the mirror and all that are all accurate, even if the designs are exaggerated. We owe it to Celestia to spread the love for she allowed us to come here to do as such and so we shall do as such for it is her will to do as such. We have our traditions and our holidays, of which I shall now explain. To start with, we have the summer and winter solstice, these are also Celestia and Luna's birthdays, beyond this we also have Midsomer and Jule (referred to as Christmas to try and help Christians onto the right path) beyond this we have Nightmare Night, Hearth's Warming eve, hearts and hooves day, harvest day and Bunny Day!!! But holidays are, of course, just days, the esoteric significance is simply the seasons and further beyond that the elements but besides these factors the days are not all too important. So how does one practice celestianism?

I'm glad you asked! There's initiation, and an Altar Building Process, and finally a tarot making process, these three steps are the beginning and most important steps into celestianism. So, let's get right into them, shall we?

Initiation -

You will need a Razor or a Knife, preferably something stylistic and definitely sharp

A white robe (better if it has Celestia's cutie mark)

You will need a piece of paper

A candle and candle holder

A fountain pen

A gold colored chalice

Some of that fake wine that's bubbly (Celestia likes it more)

And incense (preferably scented like a flower)

A framed picture of Celestia

A large picnic cloth of any colour

You must conduct this at any of the following locations

A secluded forest

A dandelion field

A plain grass field (preferably with horses)

The room you sleep in

Or an enchanted garden/grove if you have one!

Each variation is slightly different

Secluded Forest -

Set up next to a stream, before you leave your house take a bubble bath, the more bubbles the better!!!!

The set up should be as follows

Place the picnic cloth, on it set the candles, the paper, the framed picture and incense

Next take the razor/knife and face the east, then say this as you follow the path the sun would to set in the west

“Our dear princess Celestia, God of the Sun, please guide me in all that I must do, allow me to learn friendship and magick as Vril, allow Luna to teach me forgiveness and courage as Himmler and allow Princess Cadence to teach me love and kindness as Charles Manson! Hail thee of Equestria!”

Once finished take the knife and cut wherever you want on the arm for blood

Take the blood and the pen and draw the sigil of Celestia ()

Once done burn the incense and smear the remaining blood onto the framed photo, continue forwards by simply laying down and write a silly song, like pinkie pie would!!! Then take a crystal (quartz) and chant Agios o Celestia 5 times while visualizing the sigil for a few minutes, once complete stand up and feel the sun give you her love! Then pack up and leave, then get a notebook and write all about how you felt!

Afterwards create an altar, anywhere in your room, all it needs is a picture of Celestia and a candle and a crystal, then finally create a set of tarot cards (instead of the World card, replace it with a "friendship" card, draw the cards however you want (if stuck, try my favorite style, as according to the Sinister Tarot In NAOS) but make sure they're Ponies, not humans. Or you can alternatively commission a talented artist to draw the design you hope to have for your set of the tarot. To your own liking that you can proceed to print out on a later date.

Once this is all done, you can continue onto the fun part, PARTYS!!!!!!

look in the mirror before leaving the house, add one more COLORFUL AND FUN thing to that outfit!!!!!!

Next is really easy, start living by the celestial code! Make it your goal to make someone SMILE! Make it your goal to BRIGHTEN UP SOMEONE'S DAY! And SPREAD THE LOVE FAR AND WIDE!!! Love is for everyone! So spread that love brothers and sisters, we're on a one-way bus ride destination EQUESTRIA!!!! So, you better hop on this loving train! And finally, thank Celestia for saving the soul of the animal you eat from the cruelty of this world!!!!!!

Draw something here, whatever you want, its for you!

The Order of Nine Angles and the Tempel ov Blood

"Can you imagine how dull it would have been if I hadn't invited Discord? Come on! Whoo! The night is still young!"

The Order of the Nine Angles and the Tempel ov Blood are two rather large self-proclaimed "satanic" spheres, though the latter has more claim to Satan and satanism than the former due to the fact of it being a genuinely "satanic" practice, or rather an amoral pathway for humans to proceed through, however, I, and potentially some of you reading know that we are not Human, we are ponies, whether that be earth ponies, Unicorns, or Pegasi, we are all ponies here on a mission, what the mission is, is only known to you. Many of us will have benign missions, to gain intel and so on, but some of us have special missions, that only we can and will know...

The Order is nonsense, it is a fictional Lovecraftian mythos, whose occult knowledge and praxis is based almost entirely on already known German, Hellenic and Alchemical occult practices which it draws from, considering Myatt and his genuine “numinous way” nonsense, which is literally just genuine modern paganism, we can see that the ONA is, pardon my French, just Bullshit, Myatt didn't really believe it, Moulton has always been just a pagan it is just pseudo satanism that was taken so far that it scared Myatt, and I can't blame the poor bloke, he just created a fake little world that would entertain people and like 30-some years later people are writing books in its name about how “rape and murder are based” and how “pedophilia is awesome” which would naturally scare that poor fellow.

All in all, just listen to the sun on these things, follow your heart, not some humans, because your heart is where Mi Amore Cadenza lies.

Friendship Magick

“I’m the Princess of Friendship now, and lots of ponies are going to be looking to me to solve their problems. But it was foolish of me to think that I should have all the answers. What I do have are good friends who will always be there to help me find them.”

Now we all hear about the magick of friendship, but what actually is it? Well, the power of friendship magick is not very powerful in human souls, however, in pony souls it is a powerful tool, think of it like this, you’re shooting a target, what will do more damage, one gun, or many? Now apply it to magick, the more friends a pony has, the more its soul grows, and especially if it's a unicorn he or she will be extraordinarily skilled with the power of Magick, with more successful and difficult spells that he or she may perform. It is the wish of everypony to make as many friends as possible, and this is very true as we see in the show, the window to the real world, however, humans are not ponies, and many of their existences goes against the Universal Order, the natural balance, the HARMONY of the universe, and as such, they must be stomped out in order to preserve the natural balance of the universe.

Friendship magick works well in goetic rituals especially, now when we compare magick of earth to magick of Equestria, we find a problem, Earth magick is weak, and requires both invocations and evocations in order to successfully perform a feat of magick, and often requires a being of power to aid as well, such as a goetic daemon or another third-party god who uses its power to aid in the spell working should it so choose. Now this magick unfortunately must be performed, one mustn't get rusty in their magickal abilities for the return to Equus, however such magick does have a bonus to it, when doing a invocation spell, you can trap and feed off of a spirit, and with a simple evocation spell, one may even feed off false god who they trap for this ritual, further details will be revealed in due time.

HARMONY

"Well, Spike, one of the most important things a princess can do is realize when she's made a mistake and fix it."

— Princess Twilight Sparkle

Harmony, what is harmony? Well harmony is balance, it is universal order, it is nature itself, nature will balance itself into harmony, and thus we can see harmony in effect in the natural world. The Elements of Harmony are what makes up this harmony, Laughter, Kindness, Loyalty, Honesty, Generosity and Magick, these are the Elements of Harmony that balance Equestria, and we can apply it to nature and earth itself with a simple observation of nature, the Way of the Wolf more properly, generosity in mercy, to give mercy to the weak and innocent by sparing them from lives of suffering, laughter and kindness are very easy, everypony lives it some way or another, honesty and loyalty is up to each unique pony, but its relatively easy, in the end Harmony isnt hard to uphold, just live your life like the ponies do!

The Tale of Sugarplum Drop

Sugarplum Drop had been planning the day for quite some time now, since his entrance onto earth in fact, he was “born” by a pseudo-mom, an earth human with the earth name “Elena” and he himself had a earth name gifted to him by his earth mother on the first day of his mission, the name “Montgomery” had been given to him and he had used it to fool the heathens his entire life, but now the day had finally arrived for his mission to ensue, he was, and is in Equestria, a baker, his specialty was macaroons, and other cookies, and today his trade would come in handy, coincidentally the package of cyanide has arrived a week prior, to the very hour, and he had no problem incorporating the bitter chemical into his cookies, though he added extra chocolate chip to counteract the bitter taste of almond. ding went the oven, and with a look of delight he extracted the cookies from the oven, and lined them into neat rows, there were 32 cookies exactly, he placed a lid on the cookie tray and placed it in the back of his car, he then brushed his teeth and put on the pin of his cutie mark, a whisker and a splatter of dough, with a smile he head to work, driving legally and perfectly calmly, when he arrived he got out with a smile, and entered the daycare.

Order of the Solar Temple

Phantasia Fire's hooves clopped against the hard granite floor of the forts interior offices as she walked down the hallway, she had, for at least 200 years, been the head command of fort cherry blossom, and had repelled changeling raids for the same amount of time. Her fort was the largest fort in the northern region she was stationed, and as such she was responsible for the supply of the smaller forts in the surrounding areas, as it happened, Ms Fire was currently on her way to the temple within the fortress dedicated to the fire mother, Princess Celestia. She had been ordered there by the one pony whom outranked her on base, the chaplain, Midnight Sorbet. As she walked towards the temple, her mind raced as to possible explanations as to why she was summoned in the middle of her important work day for the chaplain, she had kept up on her prayers and sent weekly check ins to Celestia herself informing her of the status of the changeling invasion and the successful attempts at repelling the hordes of soulless creatures. As she stood before the door, she licked her hoof and fixed her hair, before entering the room.

It was dark, darker than one could imagine, Commander Fire's long braided almond and purple coloured mane was nearly black, and her luscious teal fur appeared a stark greyish yellow in the candle light, Infront of her stood the chaplain, he was pale, whether from ageing or bleached fur from spending so much time in the sun, she could not tell, but he was old, much older than she was, by thousands of years, he spoke in a harsh and raspy tone, it was as if he was forcing air into his lungs, and that the sensation of that alone was new to him, his eyes were pale white, a stark contrast to the fire red eyes the commander had, before she had time to ask a question, he abruptly interrupted her

“Do you know why i called you in here, Commander?”

“Is it to commend me on my bravery in combat, sire?” replied Fire

“No, though I will say that you shall soon be, but we have other matters to tend to” replied the chaplain

“Oh?”

“the Changeling hordes are up to something, I sense the presence of the spirit of a long vanquished foe, i fear we must use the dark arts once more, to destroy this spirit.”

“is that al-”

“SILENCE, I AM NOT DONE” screamed the chaplain, shutting fire up instantly “no it is not all, you must assemble a squad, and accompany them into the heart of the changeling empire, to destroy the altars bringing back this incursion to Equestria”

“yes sir” replied commander fire

“you are... dismissed commander”

Teachings of the princesses

Celestia:

“You’re telling me you can figure out the fundamentals of magic, but simple friendship is too hard for you?”

" Know that your time is coming soon. As the sun rises so does the moon. As love holds place in every heart. You're a princess you'll play your part."

“I was not aware that I was an expression”

“It’s always morning somewhere”

“There’s more to life than dusty Old books!”

“There’s no wrong way to fantasize”

Luna:

"I am the princess of the night, thus it is my duty to come into your dreams."

"FACE YOUR FEARS!!!"

"Sometimes we can worry about a thing so much, the fear can make us feel we're trapped in a nightmare."

"We always knew that whatever adversity you faced, you and your friends would find your way through it together."

"So, to be funny I have to torment those who oppose me and laugh in their faces?"

Princess Cadance:

"My love will give you strength."

"The Crystal Heart has returned! Use the light and love within you to ensure that King Sombra does not!"

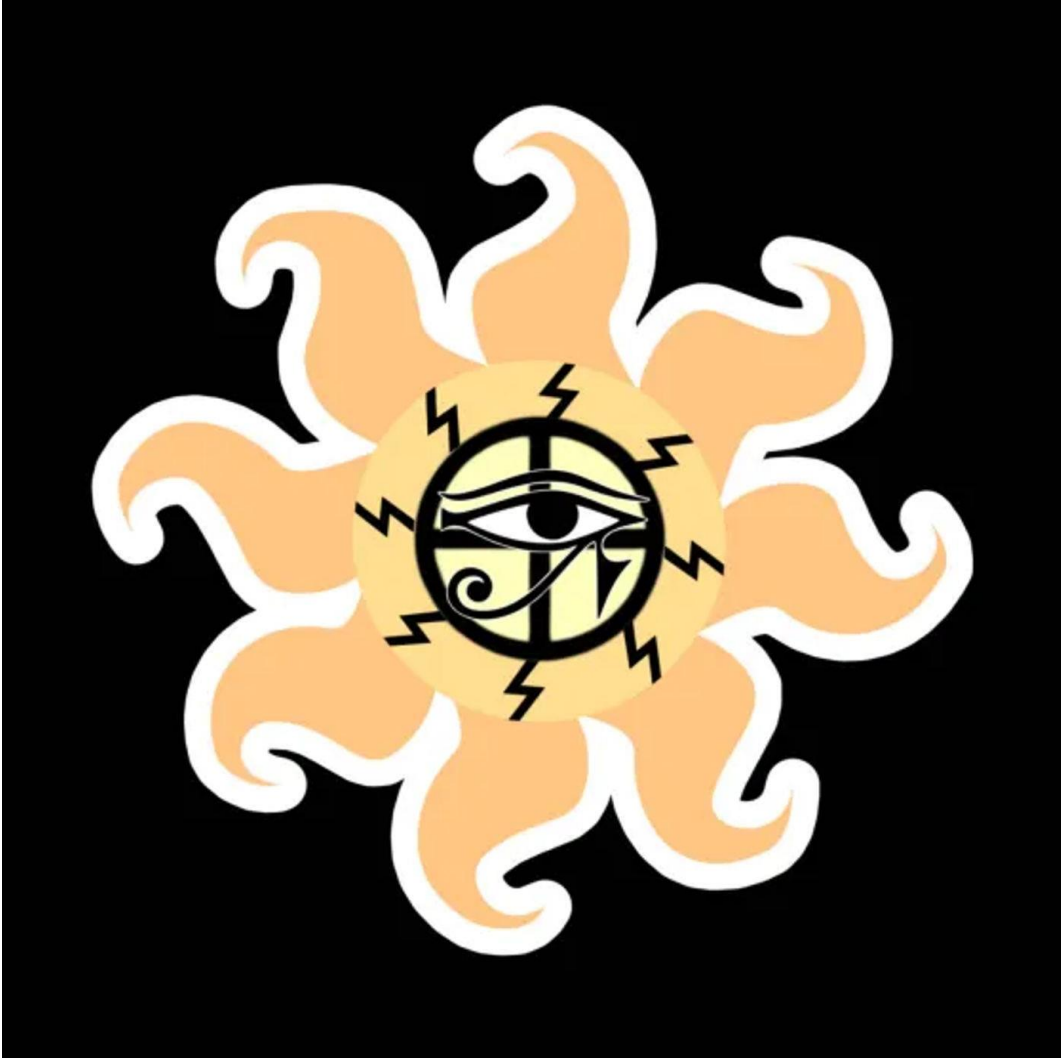

"Being around other people isn't a bad thing. Sometimes it's how you learn the most about yourself."

"Once I had Flurry Heart, the line was easier for me to see. You will always have obligations as a princess, but you also have an obligation to yourself."

Final Words

As you can see from the rest of this book, Harmony and Magick are both very real, now this book was more of a way for me to express my beliefs in written form, and if it doesn't speak to you, than it probably wasn't for you
